Third-Grade Bible Presentation This Sunday

We are excited to offer our Third Grade Bible Presentation virtually this year. Please watch our services on September 27 to see some terrific kids receive their new Bibles. It is a special time as they receive these Bibles and begin to learn more about studying God's word. We hope they spend many years using them at home, church, and growing deeper in their faith. Our children receiving Bibles this year are:

Let's Support Livestream Broadcasting

I feel called to ask you to support this project because of the potential benefit it has for all of us for many years to come. When I heard Jeff Kile tell Trustees why he and the staff felt we needed to invest in equipment for virtual broadcasting for the future, I was convinced of this need.

While I have been watching the virtual broadcasts on Sunday at home these past months, I realize what it could mean for so many people in the future who may not be able to see it now. Just think how the folks at places like Canterfield and Commonwealth would benefit to see our service on Sunday. We could really share our Christmas and Easter music with the community through this process. There are many other ways this type of broadcasting would benefit so many people.

Like any other project of this nature, funds are required to enable the project. Trustees voted for this project and passed it to the Council, who approved it. The hard part is now. We need to raise the funds as this project is outside of our budget. Finance, Trustees, and the Council felt that if we could raise $30,000, then the church would probably be able to find the rest of the money. We have had numerous projects like this over the years, and I have always found our congregation to be more than generous. Bob and I feel this project is important for many reasons, so we have made a contribution as "cheerful givers." I encouraged the UMW to give from the Bakeless Bake Sale profits to this fund, and they came forward very generously.

Jeff Kile and those who assist him have worked tirelessly since March to bring us virtual worship, classes, and events. Jeff is a part-time staff person, and he cannot do virtual streaming and his present job when we open back up. We need better equipment and some part-time help for this project. I have known Jeff since 1973 when he was in the youth group with Nancy. He has been at the church before that and ever since working as a loyal FUMC member and volunteer, and now as part of our great staff. How lucky we are to have him share his talents with us in his retirement. Let's make this project possible. If 300 members give $100 each to fund this project, it will happen. We can do it!

Thank you,
Carolyn Henderson

Keystone Activity Totes (KAT) Are Here

Keystone is busy imagining new ways to offer programming during the COVID-19 pandemic. One such way is the creation of tote bags that contain multiple activities, complete with supplies and instructions, for our participants and caregivers to use at home. While the Keystone Board and staff recognize that it is not safe at this time to offer in-person programming, we are committed to continuing to support the ongoing needs of those we serve. These needs have intensified in the wake of increased social isolation and lack of stimulation for people living with dementia as well as the lack of relief for their caregivers. As an outreach to the wider community, we have additional totes available for anyone who may need one. If you are interested in a KAT, please contact the Keystone office (483.6631).

Class on Forgiveness Begins October 13

We all know the importance of forgiveness, how Jesus calls us to forgive not 7 times but 77! Yet the process of forgiving can be extremely challenging, and most of us would admit we have some work to do in this area. FUMC will be offering a six-week class, using Archbishop Desmond Tutu's book on forgiveness as a model. Rev. Tutu received the Nobel Peace Prize and was appointed chair of South Africa's Truth and Reconciliation Commission, where he pioneered a new way for countries to move forward after experiencing civil conflict and oppression.

The class will explore what forgiveness is and what it is not (it is not forgetting nor does it subvert justice). We will also learn about Tutu's Fourfold Path of forgiveness and discuss how this relates to our own experiences. In the book's introduction, Tutu makes the bold claim that "there is nothing that cannot be forgiven, and there is no one undeserving of forgiveness." In this class, we will explore and work with our reactions to this claim.

Forgiveness matters, which may be why Jesus emphasized it so. Again to quote Tutu: "In our own ways, we are all broken. Out of that brokenness, we hurt others. Forgiveness is the journey we take toward healing the broken parts. It is how we become whole again." The path of forgiveness is not an easy one, but it is the path toward freedom and peace.

This Zoom class will be led by Rev. Jenny Caughman, meeting from 7:00–8:30 p.m. for six Tuesdays, beginning October 13. Participants may choose to read Archbishop Tutu's book but it will not be required. You can register either online (**link**) or by calling the church office (483.4357). For more information, contact Jenny Caughman (jcaughman@fumcor.org).
